Students will have input on which movies we will view each day. Beverages and snacks, selected by the group, will be available throughout the viewing of the movies. Unless the film selected is unusually long, one movie will be viewed in the morning while another in the afternoon. After each movie, students will engage in a class discussion serving as film critics for the respective movie they watched. The afternoon of the final day will culminate in a feast prepared by another interim class.

*Cost is approximate.

Times are subject to change depending upon the length of the movies chosen. Generally, the class will start at 9:00 and end between 2:00 and 2:30. However, depending upon the length of the movies selected, these times may need to be adjusted.
